

STEM COMMUNICATION CONFERENCE

Calling all STEM superstars! Showcase your passion at the KIOSC STEM Communication Conference.

Have you built a killer robot, designed a mind-blowing 3D model, or unlocked the secrets of your local pond's ecosystem? This is your chance to share your project with the world! Present your work in a fast-paced, 6-minute format to a new audience every round. Refine your communication skills, build confidence, and ignite a passion for STEM in others! It's your time to shine!
